

Contact: Nancy Benecki, Public Information Officer
(201) 460-4662 nancy.benecki@njmeadowlands.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

July 31, 2006

NJMC Searches for New Local Artists

LYNDHURST, N.J. – The New Jersey Meadowlands Commission today announced that several upcoming exhibition dates at the Flyway Gallery of the Meadowlands Environment Center will be opened to spotlight the talents of area residents and arts groups.

“The Meadowlands shows how contrasts between manmade landscapes and natural wonders can provide artistic food for thought,” said NJMC Commissioner James A. Anzevino. “The many artists, amateur and professional, who live among us in our region provide us with new windows through which to view the world around us.”

Residents within the 14-town Meadowlands District are invited to submit digital copies of drawings, paintings, photographs, or mixed-media artwork to be considered for a solo exhibit.

A second invitation is extended to arts faculty of area high schools and colleges to invite their students to use the Meadowlands as a canvas.

Residents and educators can contact NJMC Senior Creative Services Coordinator Mimi Sabatino at (201) 460-2003 or mimi.sabatino@njmeadowlands.gov.

The Meadowlands Environment Center is a New Jersey Meadowlands Commission facility operated by Ramapo College of New Jersey. The MEC is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. Saturday and Sunday.